this meeting.

Iwalani Will Be Despatched With Dr. Herbert.

The news came by the Mauna Los yesterday that Prince Cupid, who has for some months past been visiting in Kona, was injured the other day. He was out chas-ing cattle with a gang of men at Kailua, when his horse fell. He was caught under the animal and, in the struggle to extricate himself, was kicked twice in the stomach and once in the head.

J. F. Colburn stated this morning that the injuries received by Prince Cupid are not serious. However, his relatives have deemed it necessary to despatch the Iwalani to Kailua this afternoon with Dr. Geo. Herbert, David Kavananakoa and J. F. Colburn.
